How it works

Nowadays, marketing and headhunting are mostly the biggest cost items in the budget plans of companies in the financial sector.

So why not use our existing community to keep both easier, more effective, and more efficient.

With an investment of CHF 12,000 per year, you get a whole range of opportunities to place your brand, products, and vacancies within the main target group.

Want to learn more and take the chance?

Then contact our Business manager via Email hello@ccfe.ch and we arrange a personal call or meeting to clear the details and arrange the start of an investment that's worth it.
